

International Mother Language Day Celebrations

Dear Friends:

On February 21, 2015, Bangladesh Association, Houston and several other organizations representing different languages, cultures, and ethnicities are planning to observe the International Mother Language Day (IMLD) marking it a milestone for this great city.

This IMLD celebration will showcase various languages and cultures with presentations by renowned speakers, artists and dignitaries. It will also include poetry sessions, youth programs, film presentation, exhibits, and vibrant cultural programs, including dance, drama and music. This event will unequivocally reflect the diversity and cultural richness of Houston, as well as the USA.

On behalf of Bangladesh Association, I respectfully invite your organization to observe and culturally participate this day together and highlight the importance of one's mother language.

Venue: Bangladesh-American Center @ 13415 Renn Road, Houston, TX 77083

Date and Time: Saturday, Feb 21 2015 @ 9 am to 1 pm

Complimentary hot breakfast served

Children fun activities include complementary face painting, balloon art, petting zoo, inflatable's, sliders, train ride or Merry Go Around.

BBQ: Chicken or hot dog lunch available for purchase

We look forward to working with you to foster solidarity, understanding and cooperation among different cultures and communities through enlightening intellectual and cultural activities.

Sincerely,

Shah Haleem

281-748-9880

shaleem@yahoo.com

Bangladesh Association, Houston

A Nonprofit Organization, Established in 1978, Charter #3-00084-4754-9

13415 Renn Road , Houston , TX 77083

<http://www.web.Bangladesh-Association.com>

<http://www.bachouston.org/>